GOSPEL MEDITATION

Soil, seed, bearing fruit, and harvest are key words in this Sunday's Gospel parable. God wants to make us partakers to work in his vineyard and thus be direct collaborators in his work of salvation. Today we will hear two parables, the one about the seed that grows slowly and the one about the mustard seed that grows until it grows into a bush. Jesus knew very well the text of the prophet Ezekiel, where he describes God's desire for his people: "I myself will take out of the cedar a sideburn and plant it on a high mountain of Israel, and it will develop and bear fruit and become a magnificent cedar; under it shall lie birds of all kinds, and shall take shelter in the shade of its branches" (Ezekiel 17:22-23).

What do these parables mean now at this time? What am I invited to? I believe that Jesus wants us to mature in faith to act on the gifts He has given us. The Lord expects much from each of us because he has given us the tools to work. And the main tool is His Word sown in our hearts, which silently grows through prayer and action, to immediately participate in the mission entrusted to us to achieve a more just and committed society. The model to follow is Christ, the food for the journey is the Eucharist, which strengthens and sanctifies. Let us remember that, out of the small, like the mustard seed, God does great things. What has he done in me to thank him?

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA

Tierra, semilla, dar fruto y cosecha son palabras claves en la parábola del Evangelio de este domingo. Dios quiere hacernos partícipes para trabajar en su viña y así ser colaboradores directos de su obra de salvación. Hoy escucharemos dos parábolas, la de la semilla que crece lentamente y la del grano de mostaza que crece hasta hacerse grande y convertirse en un arbusto. Jesús sabía muy bien el texto del profeta Ezequiel, donde describe el deseo de Dios para su pueblo: "Yo mismo sacaré del cedro una patilla y la plantaré en una alta montaña de Israel, se desarrollará, dará frutos y se convertirá en un cedro magnífico; bajo él descansarán aves de todas las especies, se cobijarán a la sombra de sus ramas" (Ezequiel 17:22-23).

¿Qué significan estas parábolas ahora en este tiempo? ¿A qué me invitan? Creo que, Jesús desea que maduremos en la fe para actuar conforme a los dones que nos ha regalado. El Señor espera mucho de cada uno de nosotros, porque nos ha dado las herramientas para trabajar. Y la herramienta principal es su Palabra sembrada en nuestros corazones, que silenciosamente crece por medio de la oración y la acción, para enseguida participar en la misión encomendada para lograr una sociedad más justa y comprometida. El modelo a seguir es Cristo, el alimento para el camino es la Eucaristía, que fortalece y santifica. Recordemos que, de lo pequeño, como la semilla de mostaza, Dios hace grandes cosas. ¿Qué ha hecho en mí para agradecerle?

Stewardship

The Stewardship Way of Life is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in the love of God and neighbor.

“While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, “Take it; this is my body.” Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.” – Mark 14: 22-23

Christ sacrificed Himself for our redemption and gave us His Eucharistic gift. In thanksgiving, do we, as Christians stewards show our reverence and respect for Christ's awesome gift, the Eucharist?

Mayordomía

Con fe y gratitud, la corresponsabilidad es un estilo de vida que reconoce que Dios es nuestro creador y dueño de todo lo que tenemos. Reconociendo que todo es un don de Dios, un mayordomo da voluntariamente una parte de esos dones a los demás, especialmente a los necesitados. Dar una parte de nuestros recursos financieros forma parte de la vida de mayordomía.

“¿Qué bueno es darte gracias, Señor! ” – Salmos 92.2

Como buenos corresponsables respondemos más profundamente en gratitud a Dios viviendo y creciendo como una comunidad comprometida y responsable de los muchos dones que se nos han dado.
